

Before signing up for the list, I was being harassed by a school that my brother went over 15 years ago. I explained he did not live with me and had not lived at this address in years. They insisted on calling. When I signed up, I have not received any unwanted phone calls. This is the best thing this state has opted for it's citizens in years.